forts to clear the mine fields. "The allied fleets," says the Matin, "still have eight or ten forts and a certain number of coast batteries to reduce, but it is the general opinion they will enter the sea of Marmara within a fortnight, if the land forces co-operating with them, also can continue advancing."

Will Enter Constantinople.

Paris, Mar. 13.—Vice Admiral Gardien, commanding the British fleet operating against the Dardanelles today expressed his opinion that the allies will be able to hammer through the straits before Easter.

British Cruiser Destroyed by Torpedo.

London, March 13.—The admiralty announces the loss of the auxiliary cruiser Bayano, while the vessel was engaged in patrol duty.

In the statement of the disaster the admiralty says:

"On the eleventh of March Wreckage of the Bayano and bodies were discovered and circumstances point to her having been sunk by an enemy torpedo."

"Eight officers and eighteen men were rescued but it is feared that the remainder of the crew were lost."

"The captain of the Belfast steamer Castlereagh reports passing Thursday morning a quantity of wreckage and bodies floating in life belts. He attempted to search for possible survivors but was prevented by the presence of an enemy submarine which gave chase for twenty minutes."

The Belfast correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says the Bayano was torpedoed Thursday morning at 9 o'clock off Corsewall, Wigtownshire, Scotland and that nearly 200 lives were lost as the cruiser sank almost immediately. The vessel had a crew of about 236 men on board.

Wigtownshire is the southwesternmost county in Scotland. It lies on the north channel which leads into the Irish sea from the Atlantic.

The survivors of the Bayano were rescued by the Belfast steamer Balmerino. They were afloat on a raft. Another steamer picked up one of the Bayano's life boats which was adrift and also two of her rafts. The survivors were landed at Ayr.

The Bayano was comparatively a new steamer. She was built at Glasgow in 1903 and was owned by Elder and Fyffes before she was taken over by the British government and fitted out as an auxiliary cruiser.

The Bayano was of 3,500 tons displacement and 416 feet long.

TERRE HAUTE "REPEATERS" AMBITIOUS

LOCK HONEST OFFICIALS IN JAIL AND VOTE EARLY AND OFTEN

Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—The methods used for making out applications for registration figured here again Friday in the Terre Haute election fraud trial.

Cortland T. Record testified that Mayor Don M. Roberts supervised the making out of at least ten applications in the democratic county headquarters. He declared that in making out the list Roberts told him to fill in "just any age."

The witness also told of visiting the county auditor's office to compare the poll with the registration books and that he found many names on the registration books that did not show in the poll books and copied them on the poll books with the registration numbers. He declared that he copied about 200 names in one precinct.

Lester Hull, who had pleaded guilty, testified regarding instructions he received and how he registered thirty or forty men and that he was paid $8 for the day's work. On election day he said he and another man voted in nearly every precinct of the city.

Other testimony concerned registration and alleged repeating.

Mayor Roberts thanked Robert Lloyd, a policeman who had pleaded guilty, for the work he did on registration day last October, Lloyd testified Thursday.

Lloyd previously had told about driving a city automobile and hauling negroes from a number of saloons to the "Bagdad" precinct.

Lloyd told about building two special detention cells at police headquarters which he said were filled up on election day and the night before. William House, an election official, who, District Attorney Daley asserted could not be controlled by Roberts, was placed in one of the detention cells late on the night before the election, Lloyd testified, and abused House when asked to give bond.

Lloyd also told how he and two other policemen assaulted and placed in the detention cells three men who had been assigned to guard voting machines.

Seven persons, all of whom have pleaded guilty told how they had made illegal registrations and cast a number of ballots on election day.

William Taylor asserted he was a Canadian, never had been naturalized and was under 21 years of age at the time of the last election but had voted eight or ten times, receiving a dollar for each vote. He said he voted the straight democratic ticket each time.

John F. Wilson, of Columbus; John A. McMahon of Dayton, O.; and others who never appeared in the court room but were at work for months in every state in the union.

Clerks, stenographers and other help were kept here. Special trains bore the defendants back and forth between Cincinnati and Dayton on Friday nights and Monday mornings.

ATHLETIC ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT, GOOD

The exhibition given last night at the city hall by Prof. Shover and his boys, demonstrated to the spectators the value of supervision in play. Much enthusiasm was aroused and energy expended by the boys. This is the advantageous way of disposing of youthful activity, not only because of its physical value but its educational value also.

The following program was carried out in good shape:

Dutch Wind Mill Pyramid A—Capitol Hill.

Benita Caprice, walking pyramid by the pupils of Central.

Dumb Bell Drill fan pyramid, by pupils of Central.

Stick Drill—Rump Pyramid No. 7, Central.

Teddy Bear drill—Tall Pyramid, Central.

Tumbling—break down—Capitol.

The entertainment was well attended and the work of the pupils exceptionally good. The Booster Band gave a street concert before the exercises.

"KANGAROO COURT" HOLDS AN IMPORTANT SESSION

The "Kangaroo court" held an adjourned session yesterday afternoon and the police patrol rounded up a large number of offenders—men who were not members, members who had not been attending meetings regularly and others who had failed to perform duties assigned them.

John Mahoney, John Golob, Will Rejahl, Harry Ardery and John Hartman acted as policemen and arrested the victims, loaded them in the patrol wagon and hauled them off to court. Attorney Chas. Smith, in cap and gown, officiated as Judge Caught-'em-all. He promptly found everybody guilty, denied all motions for new trials; scorned pleas for appeals, and sentenced the prisoners to join the Chamber of Commerce or to work on the roads, or both. In some cases, where the exigencies of the occasion demanded, he compelled the performance of other stunts. He made an ideal judge.

Judge John D. Chappelle was the only prisoner found not guilty but he was fined anyhow, for not being guilty.

Sheriff Sherwood gave the force a merry chase for two hours but was finally haled before the bar of justice and pleaded guilty of everything charged and many things not mentioned.

Webb Baker was a troublesome "critter" and gave "the force" a lively tussle; it was necessary to carry him into court. Later on he held up the patrol wagon and appropriated it to his own use, covering the chauffeur with a gatling gun and compelling him to drive him over the city.

At the city hall Mayor Nissley and Commissioner Clothier were caught unaware and loaded in the wagon, but Commissioner Carter, asking one of the officers to hold his overcoat while he went back for something, escaped by a window and hid in the hayloft of the police stable where he was later found by Detective Hartman, a plain clothes man an hour later.

George Abrams, of the National Biscuit company, was convicted on the evidence of Ned Holman, who testified that he had known him many years ago in Russia as Gorgietta Muskovits, alias Cheesovits. Helntz Braun testified that he personally knew him to be here in violation of the neutrality laws.

W. H. Humphrey was convicted of being a horse thief and an anti-horse thief, but was given immunity because he was already a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

As a policeman John Golob proved to be the star attraction. By unanimous consent he was given the largest star and declared captain of the squad.

The wonderful record made by Diamond Tires last year proves that they are right structurally.

It proves that the materials we put into Diamond Tires have the weight, strength and wearing qualities that combine to give the most economical mileage in actual service.

Recently we conducted a test by mail to find out what jobbers and tire dealers had to say about 1914 Diamond Tire records. The hundreds of letters received from them show that Diamond Tires have more than made good.

These letters from dealers in all parts of the country, show that Diamond Tires in 1914 established a service record which stands supreme. We have put these letters into a book. They furnish concrete evidence of the big mileage Diamond users get and the freedom from tire troubles they enjoy.

Write to Akron, Ohio, for this remarkable book of letters. It's a wallop—and we want you to have a copy.

In addition to the extraordinary mileage and freedom from trouble that you get in Diamond Squegee Tread Tires, you can buy them at the following:

You Can Write a "Help Wanted" Ad Which Will Find the Worker You've Long Wanted to Find!

Write a "human" sort of "Help Wanted" ad-detailing, in a few words, the kind of work you want to have done, and how WELL you want it done. Tell what sort of PRESENT and FUTURE prospect actually await the worker who can do your work.

The mere offer of work attracts the mere searcher for a regular payday. It's worth while writing a "direct and definite ad" in order to secure the worker who can earn twice as much as you'll ever pay him.
